

Canadian Council for Refugees

Refugee Rights Day 🇨🇦 - April 4th, 2009
Edmonton YOUTH LEADERS Forum

April 4, 1985: The Supreme Court of Canada says that everyone in Canada is entitled to justice when life, liberty or security of person is at stake.

The Singh decision is a milestone for refugee rights in Canada... www.ccrweb.ca/RRDay.htm

Refugee Rights Day is celebrated each April 4th to bring attention to the advances made in the protection of refugee rights in Canada as a result of the Singh decision. Refugee Rights Day is also a time to learn about the threats to those rights. Take action to protect refugee rights in Canada on April 4th:

Come and Join in a dialogue regarding the rights of refugee youth at a national level!!!

Canadian Council for Refugees – Edmonton
Refugee Rights Day - Youth Leaders Forum

Saturday, April 4, 2009

1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Catholic Social Services Central Office: 10709-105 St. Rm# 106

Please RSVP: elyse.brazel@catholicsocialservices.ab.ca

or 780 424-3545 ask for HOST YOUTH PROGRAM

(snacks and refreshments provided)